

SKILLS SHORTAGES UK, NOVEMBER 08

Managers in construction

Civil Engineers

Physicists Geologists and Meteorologists

Chemical Engineers

Medical practitioners and Dental practitioners

Veterinarians

Biological Scientists and biochemist

Psychologists

Pharmacists/pharmacologists

Medical radiographers

Pharmaceutical dispensers

Medical and dental technicians

Occupational therapists

Speech and language therapists/therapists

Secondary education teaching professionals

Quantity surveyors

Nurses

Engineering technicians

Dancers and choreographers

Ship and hovercraft officers

Pipe Fitters

Lines repairers and cable jointers

Chefs, cooks

Care assistants and home carers

Animal care occupations n.e.c

Fishing and agriculture related occupations n.e.c

Food, drink and tobacco process operatives

Nurse

Speech and language therapists

Social Workers

- Quantity surveyors and construction managers should be suspended from the list.
- Social workers (except those working with children and families) should be suspended from the list.
- The skill threshold for care assistants and chefs should be changed.
- Orchestral musicians, visual effects and computer animation technicians. and contemporary dancers should be added to the list.
- Additions and removals within some job titles in the healthcare profession should be made.